Importance: High

Hi Jason,

Per my voice mail message, can your office please pull together additional information for Jared during the call with the Col. today at noon? The items under discussion below are a great list of topics; Jared will just need a few bullet points under each item to reference during this call.

I've also attached the itinerary for the trip, which did not change from the last version you received.

Please call with any questions. Thank you for pulling together this document!
